When I Was A Child . . .

Entering the halls of Bosse as Freshmen we felt for the first time the great burden of our childhood. All the upperclassmen loomed knowingly around us, ready to make us feel the true extent of our childishness. Naturally we fell for all their jokes and lived up to our title "greenies." Soon though, we knew our way around and we were beginning to join clubs and participate in school activities with ease and enthusiasm.

All too slowly our Freshman year passed and we gratefully moved up to the class of sophomores. During that year we threw ourselves eagerly behind the Drivers Training car wheels and hoped for the best. Not as thrilling, was having to stand in front of a lot of gooney, toothy grins in order to deliver our dreaded final speeches.

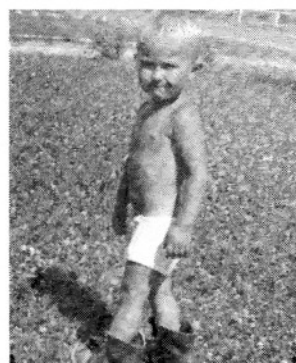

As juniors we were really into things. Many of us helped during the Spring Musical, sat through student Council meetings, joined clubs, learned to sleep through classes, and developed a new activity called TeePeeing. Then, on a soft night in April we gathered together for our Junior Prom.

All at once, we were seniors. We no longer had any students to look up to but rather a whole passle of underclassmen to sneer knowingly at. Of course along with these privileges, we also had a hand full of problems such as Economics and a small gem called the "Term paper" to whip up in our spare time. The theme for our Senior Prom, which we generously shared with the Juniors, was Starlight and Snowflakes. Sadly enough, stars weren't visible and the snow didn't fall, but the Prom proved for all to be a festive and memorable occasion anyway. Our final year held for many of us the sending of applications, invitations to order, and caps to fit.

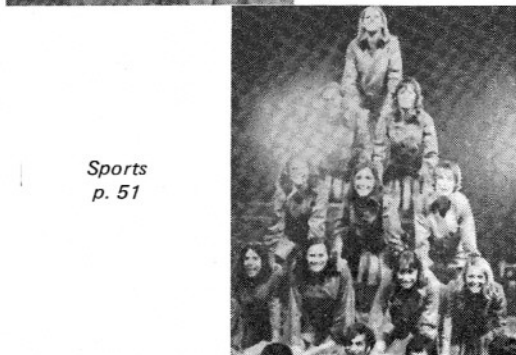

Now as we look back over the last four years we can see how we've grown, not just in size, but in knowledge and in personality, but then we look toward our fast approaching future begin to feel that there is much more growing to do. With the knowledge and maturity we have gained, we will better be able to enter a new world of responsibilities and decisions and to truly, "Give up our childish ways."

CLASS OF 1972

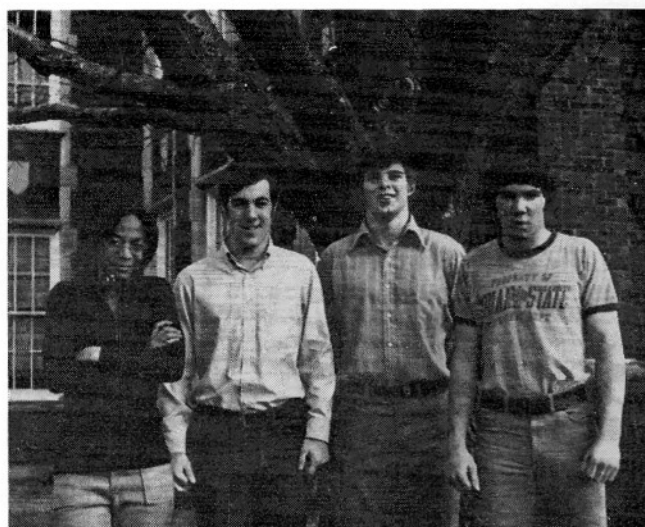

Up at dawn, trying to be on time to Student Council every Thursday morning before school, Mr. Trader and the other members enter room 152 yawning and stomachs growling. When a crisis arises, Student Council takes over, tries to find the answer in the form of a bill, passes it, and keeps it not only in effect, but up-to-date as well.

Council, Cabinet Function Effectively

In Action

Juniors, Seniors Receive Honors

Representing Bosse in the "Miss Outdoors" contest is senior Cindy Wagner. She was selected "Miss April" and participated in the Tri-State Sport and Boat Show.

Joyfully, seniors Nikki Volpe and Dan Whitfield express their ecstasy after receiving the DAR award.

Soaking up some spring sun are the Youths of the Day Louie Fleck and Debbie Adams, seniors.

Diana Litherland was awarded the High Point Senior Award by the Speech Team.

Driving to various cities such as Indianapolis, and Terre Haute, raking in all the colorful ribbons and a few trophies, and sleeping in the corner of a cold and drafty bus at 3 o'clock in the morning were the main activities of this year's Speech Team. Obviously, the team was able to talk their way into many of the judges hearts. They were awarded two trophies and five speakers (all girls!!!) were eligible for the Regional Speech Tourney. Besides showing great merit in their speaking ability, many of the members also showed fantastic aptitude at staying awake 48 hours straight without faltering, sitting through long grueling assemblies, and eating above and beyond their stomach's capacity.

Chosen as Outstanding Debator by the Speech Team was Rick Elmendorf.

Thespians Present "Whole Town's Talking"

The last scene of the "The Whole Town's Talking" finds Alan Gresham the hero standing over Dennis Craft and Norman Norvell as Diana Litherland, Dave Wooley, and Kim Glass look on in astonishment.

Alan Gresham is caught proposing to Diana Litherland, in the fall play "The Whole Town's Talking".

The velvet curtain was brought up, and the excitement of opening night for the "Whole Town's Talking" was at it's peak. After several weeks of hard work the fall play was presented on four nights in November. It was termed as highly successful by all who were involved.

The story revolved around a man who had always been very backward and unsophisticated. He had tried to make up a lie about him "sowing some wild oats" with a movie star, to impress the girl he wished to marry. When the movie star herself found out about the lie, it became a very humorous situation.

How to walk, talk, sit, and stand were only a few of the "new" things that had to be learned before the actual performances. Trying to remember lines and, if you were supposed to be sitting on the couch or standing by the window when you said them, was a little perplexing at times.

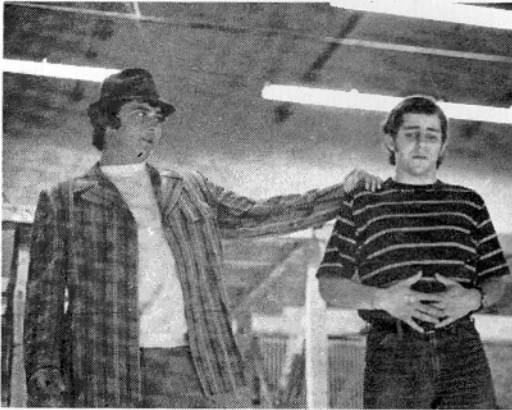

Although there were some "hard" times during practices, there was much more fun and excitement. The applause during and at the end of each performance was all that was needed to assure the performers that it was a "job well done."

Hinton, Diana Litherland, Peggy Whobrey, Donna Specht, Lynnette Moore, Danny Alsip, Ken Bush, Dave Smith, and Marsha Kennard.

During the First Weekend

Mike Hinton, portraying Billy, confronts Sir Evelyn played by Randy Earll in a scene from "Anything Goes."

Musical Groups Perform

In charge of choir business are officers Mike Hinton, vice-pres., Mary Watson, sec., Nancy Barrett, treas., Jeff Rideout, pres.

Choir, Orchestra Display Talents

Watching the "big kids" in Concert Choir and hoping someday to be a member is the wish of all the little freshmen in prep. chorus.

After gaining experience in prep. chorus, glee club and mixed chorus, one hopes to be selected to participate in the Concert Choir.

The fine reputation of the Bosse Choir was again upheld this year as the choir was asked to perform at many of the local grade schools. Missing a whole day of school, the choir members were delighted to accept these invitations.

During the Christmas holidays the choir presented a program at the Executive Inn for a convention.

Mr. Hyatt's group was also asked to sing by other clubs and organizations around town. Since the size of the choir presented problems in transportation, time and rehearsals, a smaller group was selected to perform. This group under the leadership of Ken Bush was called the Octet Plus. The Masonic Temple, Jackson House and Methodist Temple are only a few of the places where they performed.

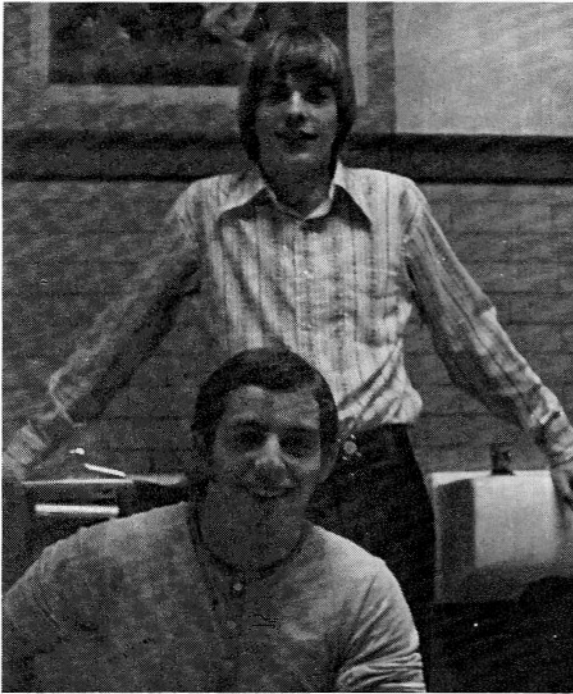

Acknowledging the outstanding talent of the Concert Choir, many of its members were chosen to participate in the All-City Choir. Several were also selected to be in All-State Choir.

The annual Latin Banquet provided entertainment for those who attended. Latin students became Romans — they wore bed sheets, ate with their fingers (ich!), and drank "grape juice wine". The first year students were slaves sold at an auction to serve the upper-class Romans. After dinner Latin actors performed in short skits, slave girls danced, and the Romans competed in the chariot (tricycles) races.

The French Club helped to boost school spirit throughout the year. They sponsored poster parties in the girls gym — painting each other more than the posters. Bringing happiness to the elderly by singing carols at the Good Samaritan Nursing Home during Christmas and providing Easter mache eggs to retarded children at Washington Grade School, the French Club proved their success as a school club. Mrs. Theriac also sponsored trips to St. Louis and Cincinnati to "eat out" at the French restaurants and race through the museums, to get on with the shopping.

!Que Tal! The Club de Espanol

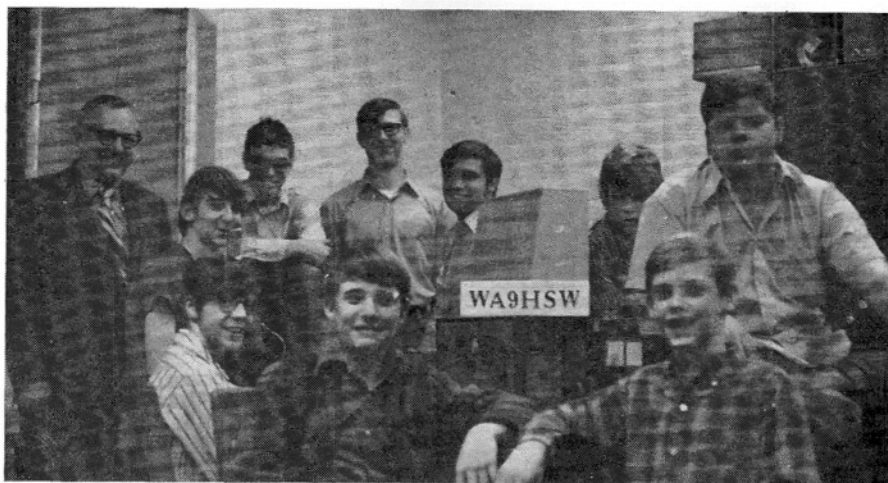

got together several times and Mrs. Moorman tried to teach the students to make Tacos. Sometimes the tacos were edible, but other times the 'corn popped out of the pan and there wasn't much left to eat. Spanish students had a chance to polish up their vocal cords when they sang Christmas carols at the Rathbone Nursing Home. Afterwards the kids were treated to a Spanish Christmas dinner at Mrs. Moorman's home; they played Spanish games and "whopped the pinata!"

Swimming thru masses of pollutants and smog up above;
 kicking beer cans and cigarette wrappers thrown in our yards; dead fish, phosphates choking our seas, do we see.
 And as it passed, came out of the maze an Ecology Club to inform of future doom, and we saw it not. (But we'd better start looking)

Second row, Mr. Trader, Alice McCoy, Shirley Hurse, Donna McMillin, Elizabeth Davis, Lee Kellems, and Gwen Sweeney. Third row, Debbie Townson, Louise Hurse,

TAG, Human Relations Commission

Strive for Better Understanding

Tommie Hunter, Roger Duncan, Willie Tinner, Cathy Goodloe, Jim Leslie and John Spinks.

Pep Club, BOSSE Committee Boost Spirit

Enthusiastically, the student body proved their school spirit by backing many of the athletic activities.

The French Club, Boost B.O.S.S.E. Committee, the band and the faculty all helped to build up the school spirit. Throughout the year activities set up by the Pep Club such as homecoming, pep assemblies, victory assemblies and sectional activities were supported by these various groups.

The students supported their team all through the football season. The cheering during the pep assemblies and victory assemblies showed how much school spirit the students had.

During basketball season, all students were given a chance to attend the pep assemblies. The assemblies were optional, giving freshmen an opportunity to go also. The result was overwhelming. What followed was that the assemblies for the rest of the year were made optional.

A diligent student, Debbie "Bookworm" Adams, is a recipient of the President's Scholarship from U. of E.

Seniors Reign Over

"Bosse Women" racing toward the goal line during the homecoming powder puff football game that saw the sophomore class triumphant.

Highlighting the year's activities are Football and Basketball Homecoming. A week of laughter and fun, football homecoming proved to be enjoyable for everyone. Top 'em day started the week off with hats ranging from motorcycle helmets to Easter bonnets. Falling near homecoming night was Halloween. Students took part in Spook 'em Day as everyone donned their spooky Halloween costume. Preceding the crowning of the queen all female students participated in the annual powder puff football game, with the sophomore girls emerging as victors.

Equally exciting was Basketball Homecoming Week. Mum day and color day were amongst the activities during the week. "Closet Queen" candidates were presented during a pep assembly and "Buxom Dubuque" was crowned during an evening involving many other activities. Basketball games matching the majorettes and the pom pon girls and the junior girls with the frosh girls were among the activities.

Homecoming Activities

Escorted by senior Bob Pollock, Mary Watson expresses delight after being named 1972 Basketball Homecoming Queen.

maid of honor; Colette Herron; Shannon Monarch, soph.; and Cheri Arbeiter. Hidden is sr. Judy Allgood. Flower girl is Briditte Ellsworth. Crownbearer is Danny Dunning.

Prom Creates Excitement

After weeks of excited anticipation that very special night of "Starlights and Snowflakes" finally arrived. The pre-prom parties were quiet and subdued. No one, male or female, wanted to muss his hair before he had his picture taken.

An orchestra provided dance music that even the chaperones couldn't resist. The perfect royalty was chosen to reign over the first junior-senior prom, a junior queen and a senior king.

When the dance ended, the fun didn't. Every one went out for a thick steak, or a hamburger at least. After dining, couples sailed to the Y to board the S.S. Bosse for a Caribbean cruise. On the lower deck bowling lanes, pinball machines, snack bar, scuba diving exhibition and a pool were among the activities provided for the passengers.

Breathless from exerting much energy doing the watusi, chicken, and twist, many couples sit down to catch their breath.

Displaying pride in Ron Morgan, homeroom 109 took third place in the door decorating contest for the sectionals.

Candid Illustrate Character(s)

Jim Simpson seems a bit stunned after receiving the coveted Kiwanis award in football.

Reserve Compile Undefeated Record

Coach Archie Owen's troops closed out the 1971 season with a fine 6-4 record. The Bulldogs were potentially a well-balanced crew, featuring a highly-potent offense and a blitzkrieg defense.

The offense, led by quarterback Mike Owen, accumulated many yards against the various types of defenses encountered. The defense, headed by middle linebacker Larry Parrott, stopped many opponents dead in their tracks.

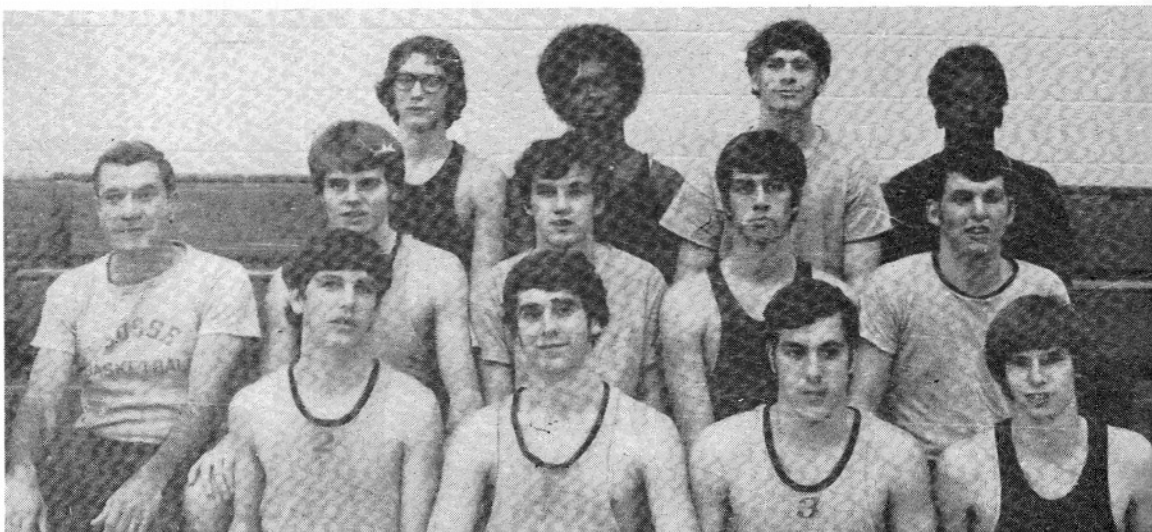

How sweet the taste of victory! Coach Art Acker's reserve team finished the season with a sparkling 7-0 record. With this came the City title. The team, comprised of sophomores and juniors, is a great and encouraging asset to next year's hopes.

Led by smooth quarterback Mike Dickens and evasive running back Jim Cole, the reserves possessed an explosive offense capable of destructing any defense.

Members of the 1971-72 Reserve City Champs are as follows: First row: Coach Art Acker, D. Claspell, K. Norton, T. Madison, J. Miller, J. Cole and Coach Ron Overton. Second row: S. Meeks, B. Humm, D. Richards, S. Ballard, K. Hoffar and M.

Junior Ron Morgan goes up for two points over a smaller defender.

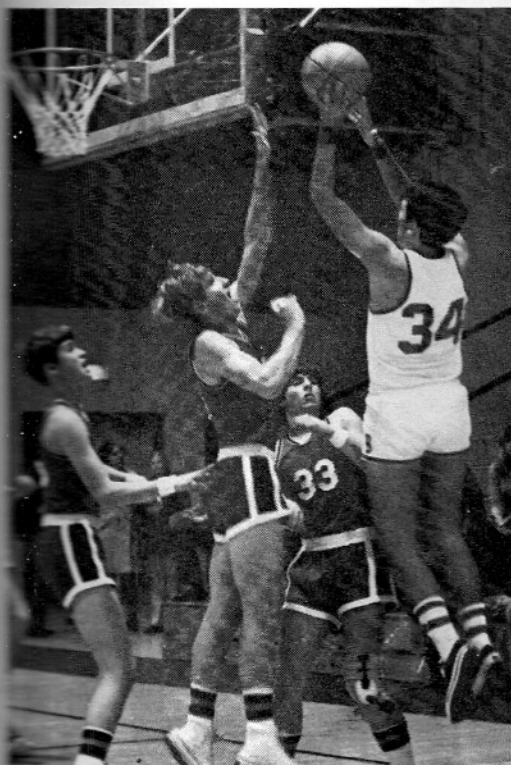

Varsity Displays Outstanding Firepower

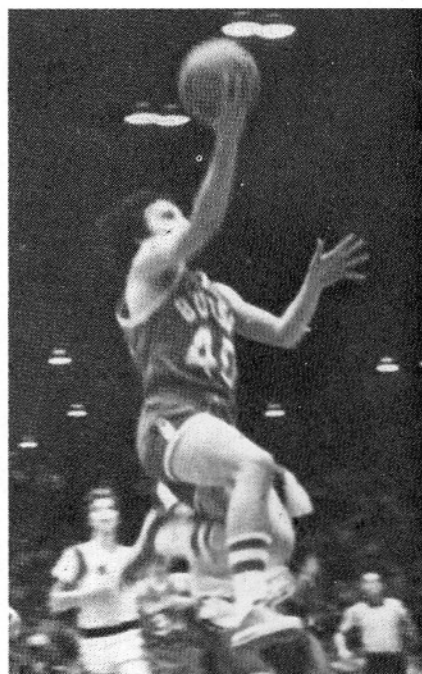

Center John Lever goes up for a shot over Bob Fischer of Mater Dei.

Afro-haired Russell Peay attempts to set up a play as Mike Owen watches attentively.

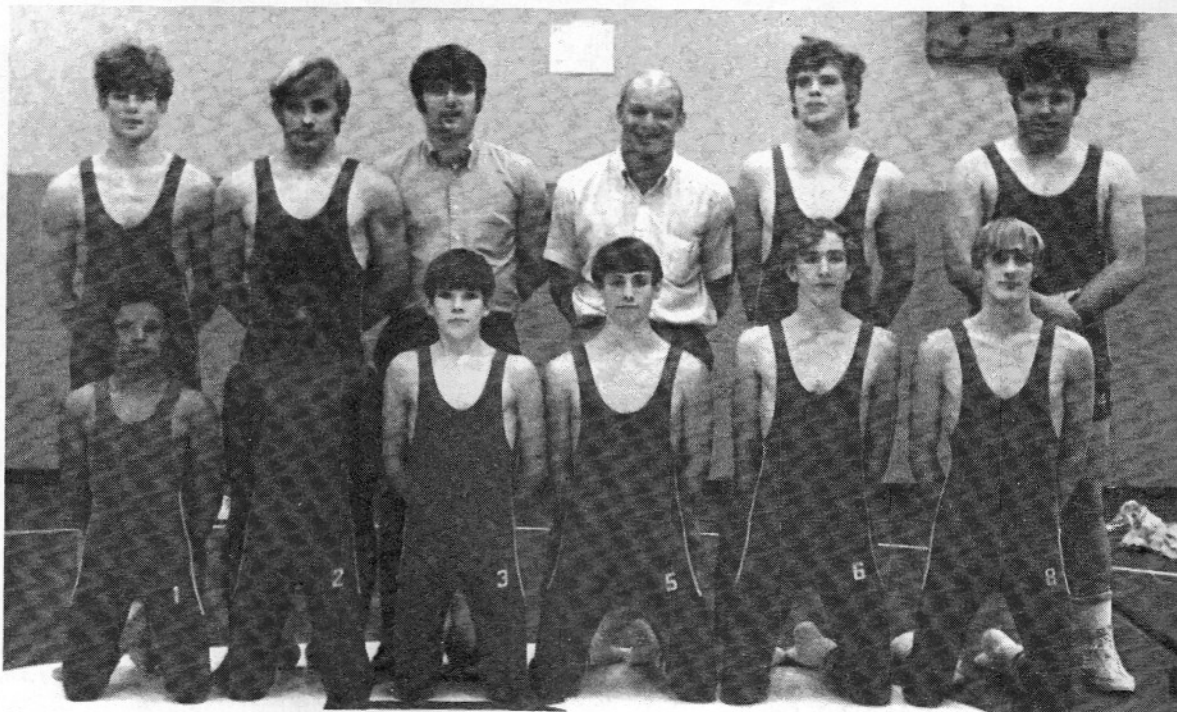

Keith Ashby guns one of his many baskets against an opposition's swarming defense.

Senior guard Terry Hurley waltzes through a Panther defense for two of his seventeen points in the loss to Reitz in the Sectional.

The varsity basketball team, under the leadership of Coach Jim Myers, finished the hardwood season with an 11-11 record. The b-ballers were led this year by three-year letterman Keith Ashby, the City's No. 3 scorer.

Individuals Highlight Grapplers Season

Tim Campbell, Assistant Coach Ron Overton, Coach Scott Riley, Bob Pollack and Larry Parrott.

This years varsity wrestling team ended their season with a respectable 8-2 record. The team was young and will return next year with six lettermen.

class) went undefeated the entire season. He also placed first in the Reserve Tourney. The reserve team placed second in the same tourney.

Cross Country Season Pleases Graham

"I was very well pleased with the past season and look forward to next year. We have a lot of underclassmen and there are at least three freshmen that may make the first seven," comments Coach Marion Graham.

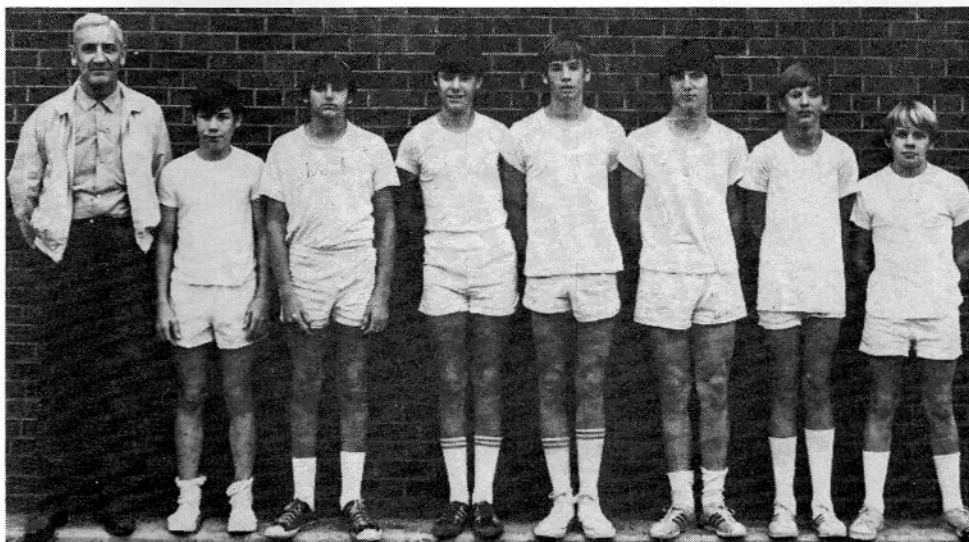

With two seniors leaving, the team appears to rate as a contender next season with many of the top players returning. Greg Hale, JC Compton and freshman standout Blake Morton should provide a solid nucleus.

Ron Schucker and Steve Crowley were effective in their final season but brighter things may be in store for the other runners in the fall. Also, the Freshman team won the City Meet so the coach has reason to anticipate a good season.

Freshman Blake Morton practices in hoping for perfection as a standout performer. Morton won the Freshman Meet.

Track Team Endures Up-and-Down Season

JC flies around the track in one of his many brilliant runs. JC is junior John Compton.

With the season nearly over the varsity track team has turned in some sparkling performances. Sophomore Jim Henderson led the team as he was undefeated during the dual meets. Ken Bush and Keith Blair gave the Bulldogs strong performances in the hurdles. Stan Duncan rated as the No. 3 broad jumper in town and John Compton was a stellar performer in the 440. Mike Hoon was tough in the 880. Hopefully Bosse may put it all together next year with a strong nucleus returning from this squad.

Senior Ken Bush attempts to catch a Harrison runner in a dual meet.

Diamondmen Launch Successful Season

Ron Morgan, Steve "Watts" Meeks, and Robin Courtney. Third Row; Mark Holsapple, Scott Hall, Coach Don Hess, Ova Stambush and Jerrel Humphrey.

Revising the team's look, getting rid of the losers, and winning ball games were the prime goals of this year's varsity team.

Composed of many underclassmen, this team appears to be a contender in the summer loop league. Coach Don Hess wouldn't trade their chances with anyone.

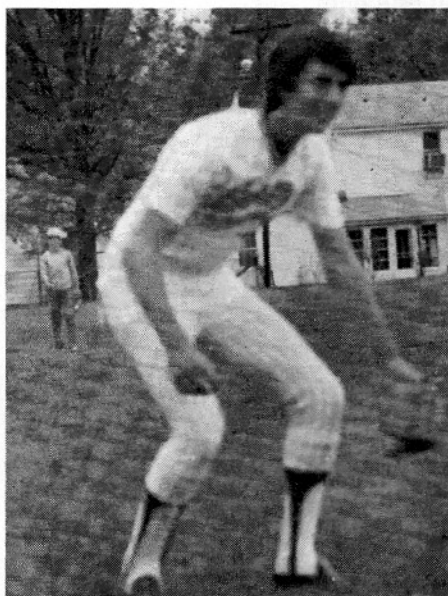

Nailing down pitching chores are fastballer Scott Hall and the slick Mike Roberts. The latter has been invisible last year but many expect him to have a fine year. Other hopefuls are junior lettermen Mark Holsapple and Dennis Mackey. Freshman Robin Courtney may see action.

Catching will be handled by Larry Parrott with Steve Meeks as the backup.

The infield is set. Holsapple or Roberts at first, Rick Stinson or Courtney at second, Ron Morgan or Stinson at short and Hall or Mackey at third. The outfield consists of Sam Lamb, Ova Stambush and Louis Fleck.

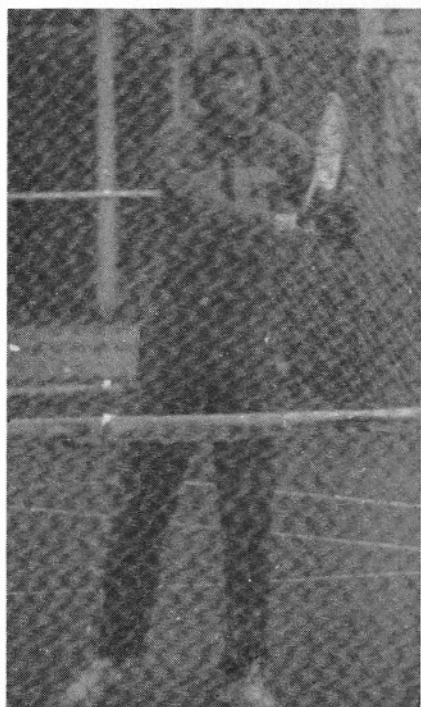

Senior lettermen are Louis "Junior" Fleck, Wally Parrott and Scott "Noodle" Hall.

Tennis Team Rates as Contender

Senior Joe Corey gets his timing down during a practice session.

With the City's best back in Mike Owen, a capable No. 2 player in Joe Corey, and a group of experienced players, this year's team prepares for the probable showdown against Harrison for the City title. Coach Kilpatrick is anticipating a fine season with the quality of players available. Sometime during the season it will wrap up the high school careers of Owen, Corey, Charlie McGary, Brad Becker, Dennis Craft, Steve Crowley and Rob Clare. Mel Reffett and Chris Stofleth will return for next year.

Senior tennis star Mike Owen returns a crisp backhand to an opponent.

Coach Gerald Reffet's golfers seem to be in strong condition for the May 27, SIAC match at Jasper, and the June 6 Sectional at Helfrich Golf Course.

Mr. Reffet also seems optimistic towards next year's team, which will feature many returning lettermen from this year.

Mike Tabor (right) instructs fellow linksmen Terry Hurley on the art of putting.

Although their 2-5 record shows a below-par season, the freshman football team produced many future prospects during the past gridiron season for the coming reserve squad.

Coach Mike Madriaga felt that the 1972 team was centered around players Robin Courtney and Morris Long, although Madriaga greatly stressed a complete team effort during the team's hard-fought campaign.

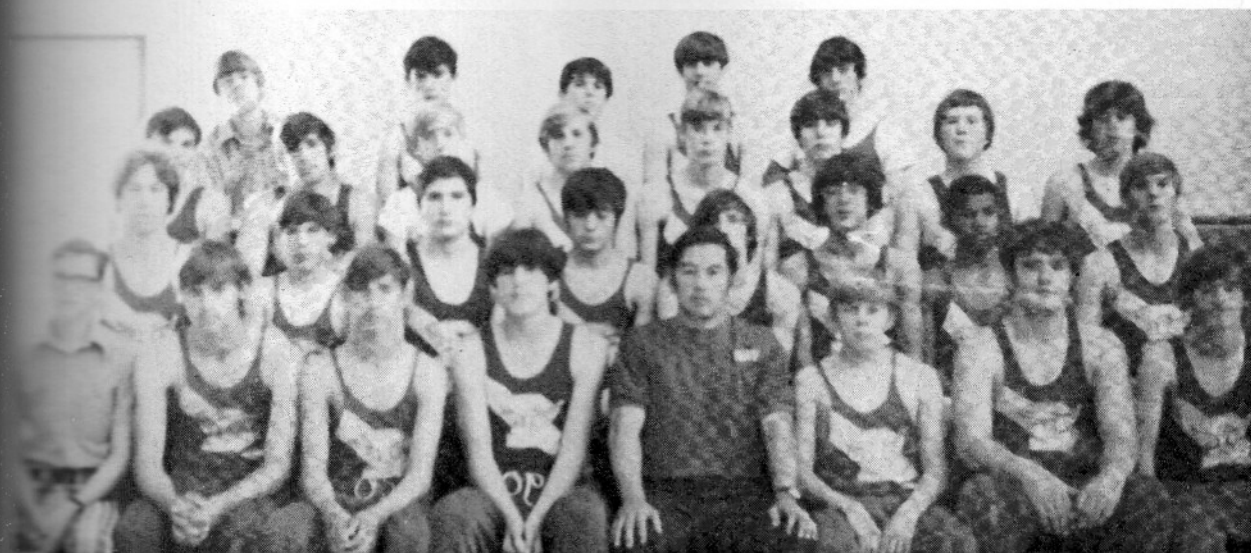

Under Coach Harold Malicoat, the freshman basketball team put together a 14-5 record to tie Harrison for the frosh city championship this past season.

Although the two leading scorers were Robin Courtney and Tony Pollard, Coach Malicoat felt that the successful season could be attributed to the fine effort put forth by the players. Mr. Malicoat also believes that the team includes fine potential for the varsity team next season.

Frosh Look Toward Future

First row (l to r): K. Schueger, E. Shelton, T. Turpin, M. Dixon, M. Madriaga (coach), J. Hughart, M. Tosh, D. Fulkerson, second row: M. Long, J. Ashworth, J. Henderson, K. Brown, K. Guess, J. Guckiew, P. Williams, D. Dennis, third row; D. Grossman, T.

Hunter, A. Miller, M. Ruder, J. Cochran, D. Weiler, B. Turley, J. Agent, Fourth row; M. Gwinn (Mgr.), M. Venson, J. Small (Mgr.), J. Kappler, D. Gentry.

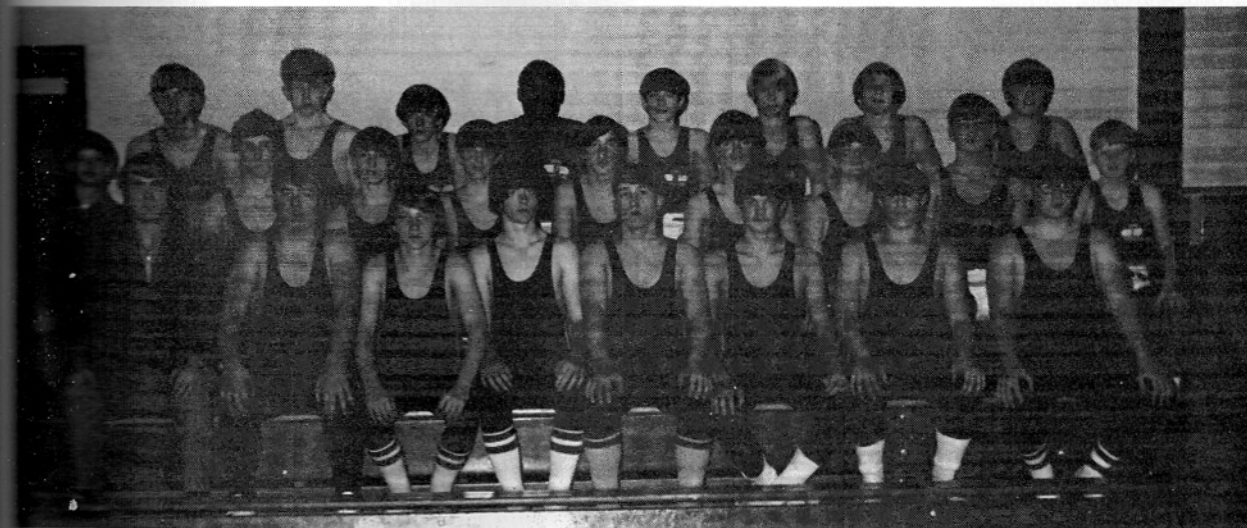

Coach Mike Madriaga feels many young prospects have developed during the course of the '72 campaign despite a mediocre record.

According to Madriaga, future prospects include Blake Morton, Desi Rankin and Kelly Guess, plus a few more promising runners.

Coach Madriaga also stressed that the team's accomplishments were made with a complete team effort by the frosh cindermen.

Although the freshman wrestling team did not have an outstanding record (5-4), they did have some outstanding wrestlers.

Ricky Gates, Randy Cates, Kelly Guess and Ed Shelton, all freshman, wrestled several reserve matches and added support to the reserve team. Many of the freshman wrestlers will go on to become reserve and varsity team members. This year's team was coached by Ron Overton.

Cheerleaders Provide Inspiration

From "Squash 'em" to "Good Luck", the varsity cheerleaders boosted the athletic teams with all the energy they could muscle up.

In November, the Varsity and Reserve squads traveled crowded but cozy to Ft. Wayne, Ind. to attend a cheerleader clinic.

The all-senior, varsity squad consists of five girls who have all been cheerleaders for four or more years. When basketball season ended so did four years of long hard work, cutting hair, being late to games, demerits, cheering in the excitement of a sectional pep assembly, holiday tourneys, and the fun of knowing four girls very well and learning to get along in all kinds of situations. Some will continue cheerleading in college, but for some the memory of Bosse cheerleading will remain forever.

Rosie Bickel was named to the All-City cheerleading squad.

Benji's Babes are from left to right, First row; L. Moore, M. Wilson, M. Newman, K. Henson, T. Sandefur, Sponsor Mrs. L. Theriac, Z. Sharp, D. Kunkel, D. Douglas, D. Pollack, and R. Stevenson. Second row; L. Hyde, K. Ebinger, B. Fields, L. Treberg, K. Glass, P. Covington, J. Toole, and C. Henderson. Third row; M. Burton, G. Flemming, S. Jaebker, D. Gudgel, D.

Rice, K. Walker, D. Litherland, and J. Woods. Fourth row; L. Mount, D. Adams, S. O'Grady, B. McIntosh, C. Kendall, M. Spacy, R. Bennett, and G. Leavell.

Absent when the picture was taken were choreographer Mrs. McCool, T. Tying, J. Danks, J. Bacon and L. Haskins.

Various Groups Boost Spirit

As a newly formed group, "Benji's Babes," the pom pon girls had some rough going at first, but after a summer full of car washes, rummage sales, and washing windows they were ready to roll.

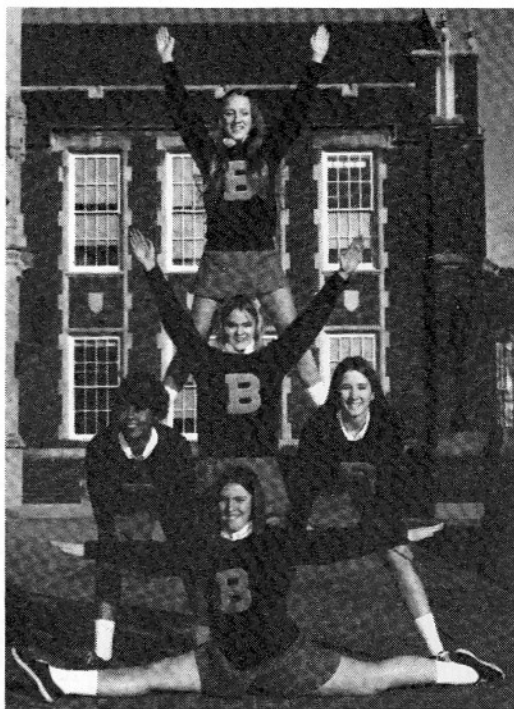

Led by sponsor Mrs. Linda Theriac and choreographer Mrs. Belle An McCool, Benji's Babes danced their hearts out to entertain the Bulldog-backers and promote spirit for their teams.

Donned in hot pants and red patent-leather boots, the Babes' jived to such tunes as "Whipped Cream," "Free" and "Scorpio," while shaking the pom-poms vigorously.

In retrospect the first pom-pon troupe can recall sweating it out on Washington lawn, trying to get that X straight, deciding on a name, and laying out the rules for the initial organization of "Benji's Babes."

Members of this year's freshman red squad are Ginger Guinn, Mary Lisa Hopt, Debbie Wise, Kim Hendricks and Vicki Jourdan.

Female Teams Show Excellence

A match against Paducah, Kentucky, with an overnight stay at Kentucky Lake proved to be the highlight of the girls' tennis team's ten match schedule. The team raised money for this new venture by having a rainy rummage sale in the fall and a cold and snowy car wash in the early spring.

Girls track has gained emphasis this year. There were four meets with other schools.

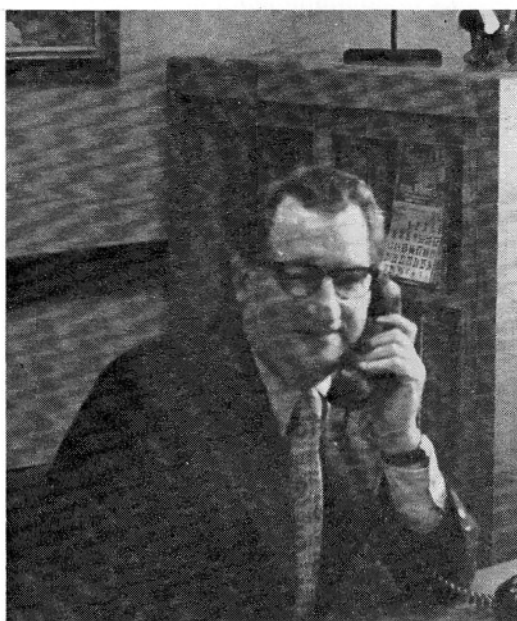

Harrison was the big meet. The girls track team won over Harrison, 46-32. The track team has also played Castle, Reitz and Jasper.

Dr. Roy Long, assistant principal in charge of programming, died May 2, 1972 of cancer of the bone marrow. Dr. Long came to Bosse in 1945 as a mathematics teacher and served as department head in 1958. He was named an assistant principal at Bosse in 1961.

A memorial service for Dr. Long and his family was conducted during school, May 4. Students and faculty paid tribute to the many years of dignified service by Dr. Long, not only in education but also in church and community service. He will be remembered as "a man who liked people, who always had time to listen, who was loved and respected by students and faculty" for many years to come.

For the first time in several years the government classes went to Washington D.C. The trip began 6 a.m. Saturday, March 4, when the students boarded a charter airline bound for Washington. After landing, the students went on buses to the White House where they viewed several rooms including the States Dining Room. Next stop was Capitol Hill where students visited the Senate and congressional chambers. There was a cafeteria lunch; then they boarded a bus to Mount Vernon, Virginia, to see George Washington's home. The last stop was Arlington Cemetery where the students watched the changing of the guard. The students landed safely home Saturday night with a million aching muscles, a million rolls of film and a million happy memories.
